Pentecost: What a Difference

"When the day of Pentecost arrived, all the believers were gathered together in one place . . . They were all filled with the Holy Spirit." (Acts 2)

What a difference! Prior to Pentecost the first Christians had been a band of believers who were puzzled about the meaning of recent events and were fearful that their association with Jesus would bring the wrath of the authorities down on them.

FAIRFIELD GLADE COMMUNITY CHURCH

Georgia-South Carolina Association

The Georgia-South Carolina Association explored the theme "Between Memory and Hope" in their seventh annual session, October 22, 1977, at the Central Christian Church (Disciples) in Augusta, Georgia.

Each church reported "what our church has done that we feel good about" ranging all of the way from nothing to natives are restless, from harmony to survival, from involvement of people in total program of church to excitement of Youth Empowerment Team.

Special guests and speakers were J.T. Stanley of Greensboro, N.C., former Superintendent of the Convention of the South, Marguerite Davison of Demorest, Ga., a commissioned worker in the former Southeast Convention and Collie Seymour of Belvidere, TN, a former member of the Liberty Church, Bowman, Ga. These three "celebrated their youth" during 1930-1950. They remembered their work among the Churches from Texas to New York, youth camp and conferences, Atlanta Theological Seminary, ice cream parties and folk games (no dancing, please), Piedmont College, Christian Endeavor, Dorchester Center, etc.

Edward and Freda Brown "celebrated their youth", 1950-1970, a period of Race Relations and Civil Rights movements, Desegregation.

Malbro Roberts, Faya Donaldson and Linda Hankins, along with 25 other young people celebrated their youth, 1970-1990, using a dramatic approach to peer into the future and seeking God's Way of Life upon the Earth.

Said Mr. Stanley in his devotion, "When God said, 'Come now, let us reason together,' He gave us an invitation that lifts us up and makes us know we are somebody. In God's sight, I am Somebody. Value of the human being is at the heart of the Gospel. The business of the Church is to proclaim the Gospel."

Mini-Camp Slated for Ala-Tenn Youth

A Mini-Camp sponsored by the Alabama-Tennessee Association and offered for youth from grades 7-12, will be held at Camp Dogwood, Soddy, TN, from Friday through Sunday, May 5-7.

The Mini-Camp comes fast on the heels of a Pop-In also sponsored by the Ala-Tenn Association, that was attended by some 40 youth and advisors March 31-April 2 at First E&R, UCC in Nashville. The Pop-In — a fun and fellowship activity — featured an afternoon boat trip on the Cumberland River, swimming and an evening dance contest. The weekend — which was planned and hosted by the youth groups of First E&R and Brookmeade Churches, was thoroughly enjoyed.

The May 5-7 Mini-Camp, the fourth and final Association-wide youth activity for this program year, will feature program leadership from members of the Southeast Conference Youth Core. A special feature of the Mini-Camp for adults and interested youth will be a Saturday afternoon Workshop on Church Camping to be taught by Associate Conference Minister, the Rev. Warren Blankenhorn and his wife, Evelyn.

Planning for the '78-'79 program year will be done by the Ala-Tenn Youth Planning Committee on Saturday, August 19 at Huntsville UCC.

For the '77-'78 program year, recognizing the vast distances covered by the Ala-Tenn Association, events have been scheduled in the following four areas: Huntsville, Ozone (near Knoxville), Nashville and Chattanooga. Some 120 young people have been registered for the events held thus far.

Maundy Thursday Services at Fairfield Glade Church

An inspirational communion service was held on Maundy Thursday. Rev. Marion E. Mansell planned the worship service to include participation by members of the church who read passages from various Bible translations of the old and new Testaments.

The communicants, seated around the 'cross', broke bread, as it was passed from a common loaf and dipped it into a common cup in celebration of the Lord's Supper. The solo, "Were You There", sung by Fred Lansinger and the special hymns selected by Rev. Mansell added much to this meaningful service.

The Fairfield Glade Community Church which held its first service on Sept. 21, 1976 in the Glade Security Building, now meets in the Fireside Room at the Glade Country Club. There is a Bible Study at 9:00 A.M. and the Worship Service at 10:00 A.M. to which all are welcome.

Church and Society." Also present will be Dr. James Lightbourne, Conference Minister of the Southern Conference, who will share actions and concerns of the United Church General Synod and Executive Council.

An annual event of the Southeast Conference, the Minister's Convocation provides a time not only for continuing education, but for fellowship and relaxation as well. Conference churches are urged to make it possible — both in terms of times and finances — for their pastor to attend.

Contributions and offerings for Convocation scholarships are always welcome and may be forwarded to the Conference office in Atlanta.

QUITE AN AUXILIARY!

The Auxiliary of the Wharton Nursing Home, part of Uplands Retirement Center, Pleasant Hill, TN, recently pledged to purchase on behalf of the Nursing Home some $2,214.00 worth of needed equipment. Some $893 has already been donated, leaving a balance of $1,321 which the Auxiliary will raise.

How often do we take groups like the Auxiliary of Wharton Nursing Home — and other auxiliaries, women's groups and men's groups for granted. But how often do these groups "pull us through" with physical and financial aid and assistance!

From the Old to the New

Rev. F. Van Gorder Parker, pastor of The First Church in Windsor, Conn. wrote the Rev. George Bennett, pastor of the new United Church of Christ being started in Gwinnett County, Ga., March 28, 1978.

Dear George,

Got your "Palm Sunday" report in the mail yesterday. Sounds like you're getting off to an excellent start and finding a good response. Our church will soon be celebrating its 350th anniversary (1980) and is one of the oldest, if not the oldest, Congregational Churches in the country. The congregation was organized in Plymouth, England in 1630 and migrated to Dorchester, Mass. and their minister and some of the congregation went on to Windsor. There is even a possibility that a church in Georgia may have later been formed by the group that remained in Dorchester. I'm a little shaky on that sort of thing and am well aware of the dangers of any congregation overemphasizing the past.

At any rate, the thought occurred to me, and I brought it up at one of our board meetings last night: "What about the possibility of this old congregation and your new congregation establishing some kind of a partnership relation?" It might initially only mean our church making a token contribution of one or two hundred dollars. Perhaps some mutual correspondence could develop. It would certainly be good for us, as we look forward to our 350th anniversary, to do something that was forward looking and future oriented. The people I've spoken to here seem enthusiastic about the idea, but before doing anything we need a reading from you. If you feel there might be some mutual benefit and "strengthening in the faith", let me know. We'll be open to you and to the Spirit either way.

However you feel about this particular possibility, I hope you're finding real satisfaction in doing this new thing and that the "meeting of persons who want a church to happen" will soon become a true Christian Community.

As ever,
Van

MRS. A. A. COULT

Mrs. A. S. Coult Honored

Mrs. A.A. Coult, charter member of Brookmeade Congregational Church, UCC in Nashville, TN was honored recently by the Tennessee Federation of Music Clubs, of which she is a past president. In addition to serving as a counselor for a junior music club in Nashville and continuing piano classes for young people in her home, Mrs. Coult has served for the past 40 years as National Historian for the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Serving in the same capacity for her church, Mrs. Coult is the Historian and an officer for Brookmeade Church.

persecution, power to share their belongings with each other, power to obey God rather than man, power to become the church.

What a difference! Instead of groping for meaning they grasped a mission. They became Christ's witnesses in Jerusalem and to the ends of the earth.

So can we. Through Our Christian World Mission (OCWM), the mission to which we are committed can continue to take tangible form through . . . food for the hungry, God's Word for the lonely, medical care for the ill and innumerable other expressions of our Christian commitment enacted on our behalf through the instrumentalities of the United Church of Christ.

Let's make a difference this May 14 — Pentecost Sunday — by recommittng our support and ourselves to Our Christian World Mission!

Ship with 10,000 Tons of Wheat Sails for Vietnam

NEW YORK, April 2 — A ship carrying 10,000 tons of wheat left the port of Houston today for Vietnam. The wheat, which will help offset a severe food shortage in Vietnam, is a gift sponsored by Church World Service, the international relief and development arm of the National Council of Churches.

The Greek ship, Antiochia, is the first to sail to Vietnam from the U.S. since the war. It will take 35 days to reach Ho Chi Minh City (Saigon) and will arrive as the Vietnamese mark the third anniversary of the war's end, April 30.
